

Useful Websites

Please report any failed links to your school:

www.thinkuknow.co.uk/parents – CEOP’s education site containing areas of interest for all age groups including parents and teachers.

www.facebook.com/clickceop Let’s you “Like” the CEOP page. Also has lots of additional information.

<http://www.childnet.com/kia/parents> - Childnet’s KnowITall page with links to excellent advice for parents

<http://www.childnet.com/parents-and-carers/hot-topics/parental-controls> - Childnet site explaining how to set parent controls offered by your Internet Provider

<http://www.childnet.com/resources/a-parents-guide-to-technology> - parent’s guide to using technology safely

<http://www.connectsafely.org/pdfs/fbparents.pdf> - guide to using Facebook written especially for parents.

<http://www.mumsnet.com/>

Online discussion forum with comments posted about popular issues.

<http://www1.k9webprotection.com>

Free content filter

Google Safe Search for Kids - <http://www.safesearchkids.com/>

Squirrelnet – based on Googles strict safe search criteria - <http://www.squirrelnet.com>

Yahooligans – fun site for children with games, jokes and loads of educational resources

<http://kids.yahoo.com/>

Ask Kids – “safe” search engine for children. NOTE: due to the nature of the Internet no search engine can be 100% safe but this site and the one’s above go to great lengths to ensure the content they provide is as safe as possible. Read the parents section for more information.

<http://www.askkids.com/>

Click Kids – child friendly search engine designed by librarians.

<http://www.kidsclick.org/>

Internet Watch Foundation – Should you come across material which you think is illegal you can report it here.

<http://www.iwf.org.uk>